Facts Begin To Emerge!

The following statements by the four candidates for school trusteeship should begin to give the voters light on the main issue in this campaign. The Star urges its readers to study these statements carefully, and avoid forming any opinion until next week's issue. By then we hope to give our readers the facts.

(By Rupert Linley)

This time of impending election of two members of our Lakeside Union School District board of trustees is an excellent one to inform all parents, voters and taxpayers of the progress of our local schools; it is clear that interest in the schools is widespread and it is believed that the following facts will be read and thoroughly considered.

An enlightened public opinion is necessary to our progress—enlightened by printed facts easily capable of proof, as distinguished from rumors from no acknowledged source and with no definite facts stated. Many of these unfounded rumors have been circulated or repeated by those dissatisfied with Elmer Walker, our school superintendent, in an effort to cause community dissatisfaction with his work and efforts.

I will repeat at this time only a few of these rumors, together with the true facts, but am always willing and happy to give the positive facts on any question where facts are available.

One of these rumors is to the effect that we have wasted the taxpayers' money in our building programs; that there was no need for our administration building, known as the Education Center; that we have wasted money on "frills." The best method of proving the falsity of that rumor would be to ask every resident of Lakeside to visit all our buildings, to observe the work being done there, to learn the plans for increased uses next school year and the years to follow. Manifestly this method is not available to all interested persons, so let's just consider some of the facts. The principal fact is that some complainers haven't been able to realize that Lakeside is growing up; that our "average daily attendance" in 1947, when Mr. Walker was first employed, was 450, and we were even then faced with double sessions, and that at the present time it is about 940, over twice as great. Also our income and expense was then about half as large as it is now; that our administrators and staff must handle and account for over a quarter of a million dollars annually at the present time; that we have an investment in school buildings of well over a million dollars and must protect and conserve that investment and that income.

Lakeside needs every building that has been erected for its schools, and never would have been able to obtain them except for the initiative and enthusiasm displayed by Supt. Walker, in promptly applying for our proper share of "state aid" funds which were available to those districts which applied first, and of which it is anticipated by informed sources only a small percentage will be repaid to the state by our district taxpayers.

It is also a recognized fact that good, modern, progressive schools and buildings attract new residents, increase populations and property values. Thus in obtaining buildings and facilities we needed, there was no waste; they were obtained by our district at a fraction of their value, and all residents of Lakeside have been benefited.

True, we continually need new classrooms, and the question is often asked "Why didn't we build more classrooms with these state aid funds?" The true answer has been printed in Lakeside paper several times, and is that we built every foot of classroom space that was permitted to us by the State. Our Education Center is a beehive of necessary activity during the day, and is frequently used in the evenings by various community groups, including the P. T. A. board and committees. Our two auditoriums are likewise much in use by our children in the daytime, and by various community and school groups in the evenings. All buildings are necessary to improve the educational standards for our children. Also, anyone really aware of the growth and present size of our school district will realize that all persons employed are necessary to us for the same reason.

Now, why is it that Edna Kouns and Hart Dunham, candidates for election to the school board, are claiming that the district has wasted money and didn't need these buildings? Why do they claim that they have no antagonism to Supt. Walker? Dunham has been a member of the school board for many years, and voted in favor of every expenditure made for school buildings. Mrs. Kouns, as an official of the P. T. A., campaigned vigorously for every bond election and vote relative to school construction. The only reasonable answer is that both have agreed that a platform of promised reduced expenditures will get them votes, and then, if elected they will have a better opportunity to continue their efforts to dispose of Mr. Walker.

It is interesting to consider the following quotation from the manual of the National Congress of Parents and Teachers: "Only the highest types of citizens—those deeply concerned with educational standards and completely aware of citizen responsibility for community education—should be elected or appointed to these (public education) boards."

Tom Barkdull and I are thus deeply concerned and thus completely aware; these are the only reasons that I have served on our local school board for over six years last past and am willing to serve an additional term. Also I am sure these are the only reasons that Tom Barkdull has offered to serve on this time-consuming job.

On the other hand, our opponents have established, on several recent occasions, their intentions to undermine public confidence in our school system, by carrying and repeating unfounded and untrue rumors and gossip relative to actions and attitudes of our teachers and our superintendent, or by malicious statements in open school board meetings expressing distrust and lack of confidence in the superintendent. Both have had disagreements with Mr. Walker, in each such instance the majority of the members of the school board has decided the point in issue in favor of Mr. Walker's point of view. Instead of submitting courteously to the will of the majority in these cases, these candidates have chosen their present course, as set forth above.

Since writing the above statement, it has developed that these opponents, Edna Kouns and Hart Dunham or their friends, are committing one of the most unpardonable sins, namely, an effort to cause a religious controversy solely to gain them votes. There is no religious controversy. Mr. Walker is a Protestant. I am a member of the Masonic fraternity, El Cajon Lodge No. 576, Free and Accepted Masons of California. Tom Barkdull is a member of no church, but is a Christian in every way.

In conclusion, I am happy to assure all Lakeside people that our school district is running smoothly; that our teachers, principals, and other employees are efficient and competent. The only purpose of this strenuous election campaign on my part is to do everything possible to keep up this condition which now prevails, and to prevent a small group of persons who are discontented with established authority from tearing down this efficient organization.

(By Hart Dunham)

As an old war horse on the school board, I felt that a simple declaration of my intention to run again was all that the people of the community cared to know. But a quick look at last week's papers convinces me that the accepted plan is to fill the front page with as much confusion as possible. So I will add a few ideas to those already in circulation.

The issue, as stated by Mr. Linley in the press, is one that he and Mr. Barkdull have invented. I have never made any statement which could be interpreted, legally or otherwise, to bear out their statement.

Another point that requires some clarification is the one that I am against Mr. Walker because he fails to agree with me. The real trouble is that I refuse to kow tow to every idea presented by Mr. Walker and Mr. Linley. The record will reveal that Mr. Linley has prodded his policies thru the board meetings and he resents any refusal to rubber stamp his proposals.

Being elected by the people I feel that the people should have some consideration in regard to the program of the children's education. I am sure that we would not spend our own money as we do the tax money. I believe we can trim some fat out of any budget. I know we are not getting "free" money from the state. I think we should try to pay for our children's education rather than saddle them with a debt for years to come. From experience I know that we have always had enough applications from teachers to fill our staff without financing a junket to the middle west for our superintendent to hire beginning teachers.

As long as I am a trustee I will hold to these things.

(By Edna Kouns)

My qualifications and reasons for running for trustee which were printed in last week's paper have not changed.

I am shocked by Mr. Linley's and Mr. Barkdull's statements. After 12 years of working closely with the school personnel, administrators and entire board of trustees, including Mr. Linley, and having never opposed any decision made by Mr. Walker or the board, the accusations made by Mr. Linley and Mr. Barkdull are a direct contradiction of the record.

Furthermore, I feel that Mr. Linley's attack has placed Mr. Walker in a very embarrassing situation.

I agree with Mr. Linley's statement that "only informed people can remain a free people." I interpret this as meaning adults as well as school children. I invite the Lakeside citizens to inform themselves of the true issue and vote accordingly to their best judgement.

(By Tom Barkdull)

Citizens of the Lakeside Union School District who have endorsed Tom Barkdull and C. Rupert Linley for election as members of the Board of Trustees held their second weekly meeting on Monday evening of this week at the Kiwanis Hall. The first of these meetings which was a week ago was held in the home of Doug and Mary Biggs, but since the issues of the election have been made known more room was needed to accommodate the many citizens wanting to take an active part. This group has also endorsed Superintendent E. M. Walker as having performed excellent services for the benefit of the Lakeside Schools and the children of our district, and are not in sympathy with the plan to secure Mr. Walker's discharge or resignation.

The following statement was made for the Star this week by Tom Barkdull, candidate for Trustee at the May 11th election:

"Since Superintendent Walker's departure for Eastern and Mid Western colleges to obtain additional teachers for the Lakeside Schools the whispering campaigns have been having a field day. However, the absurdities being so freely peddled about the district are not of a nature that require any concern in the minds of citizens who are acquainted with the facts.

"This minority group which has attacked the Administration of our fine school district with such 'behind the back fence' tactics as we have witnessed of late do come up occasionally though with a gem of unfounded gossip which may stand passing along only for its entertainment value. A good (or poor) example of this will strike you as humorous in spite of its obviously vicious intent, to wit: that the girls' rest room facilities at the new Lakeside Union site are utterly devoid of any privacy; in fact, the girls are afforded only a long trough upon which they must sit, single file, all facing one direction. Malicious? Yes, of course. However, these whisperers are losing sight of the fact that both of our school plants are not only open for inspection by the citizens, but that a great many have already inspected them and found them up to date, adequate and having every means of privacy desired. I know the people of Lakeside all too well to believe that the starting of a story such as the one repeated above can be anything but a bad try. We know better!

"I note from the statement of one who aspires to a Trusteeship as quoted in last week's Star that our group of dissenters favor one representative from each area in the School District. May I point out that School Districts are not composed of several areas or parts, but are each whole and complete in themselves and the members of the Board are there to represent all of the District and all of the citizens in the District. Surely this is as we prefer it. We haven't forgotten the days of the ward heelers with each member pulling in a separate direction to get all the benefits for his or her district. Such a policy in our School District would most assuredly rip that district apart. There is dissension and wrangling on the part of this tiny minority now which we must endeavor to do away with—certainly not to let them inject even more of it into the Board of Trustees. If this aspirant MUST break our District down into areas, let me point out that the Lakeside Heights-Riverview area is at the present time represented by one of their residents, and a very capable one in the person of Doug McClain. It is Lakeside Townsite alone which is without a member on the board, while Lakeside Farms-Eucalyptus Hills has two residents as members.

"I also note from the statement of the above mentioned candidate the following: 'As a taxpayer and property owner I believe tax money should be spent cautiously.' We must assume that the tax money which is referred to is the tax money which this person so strongly criticized Mr. Walker for travelling to Sacramento to get. In fact, if it were not for that gentleman's alertness there would be no tax money and no new schools in Lakeside today. Furthermore, as President of the Citizens' Advisory Committee I have observed the spending of tax money in our District, and I will assure our citizenry that money is spent astutely and with a full measure of caution in every instance. I do not hesitate to give you this assurance and during my residence in Lakeside I have never misrepresented an issue to its people yet. Also, let me add that the records are open to you the public. You may very easily check on expenditures by asking to see the minutes of the Board of Trustees' meetings. I urge you to do just that and do not be hoodwinked by the half truths which will be issued in the form of 'statements' for the following four weeks. Beware of these utterings which will be full of implications, insinuations and innuendoes. Remember that they are all part of the attempt to undermine the administration of our school district by a small group who have been unable to obstruct its progress. And remember that these whisperings are only a sign of frustration on the part of a group which seems to spend a great deal of their time attempting to head off all progressive moves of our community regardless of their nature.

I do not feel it necessary to discuss further the tactics being used by our whispering campaigners. I have come to know from life that our solid and clear thinking citizens have nothing but abhorrence for gossip. I have found that they stand with the Editor of this newspaper, who a few weeks ago stated that the Star is interested only in facts.

I must urge you to join us at the Kiwanis Hall on Monday evenings where a great number of your neighbors have been gathering to sort facts and delve into this problem to the greatest possible extent. The number who have turned out to indicate their satisfaction with our schools and with the record of Superintendent Walker has grown by leaps and bounds. In fact, I am finding the people of Lakeside School District so unanimously ready to defend Mr. Walker that I anticipate a turn about face by our minority group at any time. Possibly the next scuttle-butt to start the rounds will be to the effect that this group have disowned their own policy and have attempted to deny that they ever did attack Mr. Walker. If such should happen, I am wondering what they will latch onto next as a possible point of dissension. Let's watch and see.

To Whom It May Concern:

The candidacy statements of C. Rupert Linley and Tom Barkdull call for this statement by a number of Lakeside Union School District patrons.

Some parents became interested in learning more about local school affairs because their children are now, or next year will be, housed in a "tin" building while a large and luxurious administration building has been completed. Some were primarily interested in transportation problems directly affecting their children. Others were interested in an equitable adjustment of teachers' salaries to attract and hold good teachers. Some people wanted information about administrative costs; while still others wished to learn why our building construction costs are so much higher per square foot than are comparative figures in San Diego. Because of inevitable depreciation in school property a few tax payers were questioning the advisability of incurring increasing indebtedness, the repayment of which will begin some 20 years hence as a burden to our children and grandchildren. Some citizens wished to know the status of school property in view of possible district reorganization under existing state laws. Some wished to learn why there is what they consider an abnormally high rate of teacher turnover in this district. To secure information on these phases of education policy, these school patrons have attended school board meetings, Citizens' Advisory Committee meetings, and a budget hearing, to all of which it was publicly stated that patrons are welcome.

School board meeting minutes, actions taken by the board, budget statistics, a report by the School District business manager, and reports of the Citizens' Advisory Committee have been informative to those interested. They were keenly interested in the Citizens' Advisory Committee's Special Building Committee report. This committee, appointed by chairman Tom Barkdull at Mr. Walker's suggestion consisted of John Westrick, chairman, Leola Herms, Edna Kouns, Bertha Polk, and Tom Barkdull. A factual report was made at a meeting of the Citizens' Advisory Committee, and a second report by Bertha Polk and Edna Kouns was submitted to the Board of Trustees, in writing and completely documented and listing exact source reference. It is too long to quote here but is available at the District office to any person who wishes to determine for himself the type of investigation made by these two women.

The problems herein listed are, with some variations, those which confront every expanding school district in California at this time. Opinions about methods of dealing with them differ. This is natural and desirable in a democratic society. The outcomes will result in sound growth, providing the purposes are not perverted.

It is unfortunate that Mr. Linley and Mr. Barkdull have tried to reduce the issues in the coming election of trustees to the level of personalities, at their filing statements indicate. It is doubly unfortunate that it was done at a time when Mr. Walker is absent from this state. His tenure as District Supt. has never been an issue, publicly or privately. The attempt of Mr. Linley and Mr. Barkdull to make it so can be nothing but a disservice to Mr. Walker.

Objective, constructive judgement can be based only upon objectives, constructive information.

Mr. T. H. Barkdull
852 Julian Avenue
Lakeside, California
Dear Mr. Barkdull:

As per our phone conversation of this date in reference to my appearance at your citizen's meeting recently and certain statements made in reply to the question as "To what did I attribute the delay in the completion of the Lakeside School?" and to the best of my remembrance I replied as follows:

1. I suggested that you inquire of the General Contractor his reasons not being able to have completed this work at an earlier date as I did believe that all items with the exception of certain change order items could have been completed sometime ago.

2. I also stated that there had been several change orders in connection with this project and change orders necessarily cause a certain delay due the handling and processing the same in passing through the various offices where they must be considered before the final approval is made.

I trust this letter will clarify any questions in connection with my statements in connection with this matter.

Very truly yours,
C. W. Dresser,
Building Inspector.

Letter To Editor

It seems the biggest issue in town at this time centers around the forth coming election of two members for the local school Board of Trustees. I'm a little confused.

Talk on the street and telephones indicate that two of the persons on the ballot wish to gain seats on the Board of Trustees in order to force our School Superintendent Elmer Walker to resign. This is what I don't understand.

I have known Dutch Walker for the past four years and can speak very highly of the man. I doubt if there are many men who have the drive and intestinal fortitude to get behind a project such as our local schools and push them to the point where we can be justifiably proud of them. I believe it only fair to give credit where credit is due. Consequently — I off my hat to Dutch Walker for a job well done and for the job he will continue to do in the future.

The two people who are seeking election to the Board of Trustees whom I know will support Mr. Walker to the best interest of the school district are Rupert Linley and Tom Barkdull. With these two interested community citizens on the Board I sincerely believe we will have a harmonious group of Trustees working together with a continued good administration under the direction of Elmer Walker.

The schools, children, and tax payers stand to gain.
Yours truly,
F. Douglas Biggs

The Pilgrim Fellowship Group of the Alpine Community Church are preparing to stage a Hobby Show in June, after school vacation starts. Date to be announced later. Public is invited to exhibit their hobbies. Those desiring to exhibit are requested to call on Johnny Bates or Hosmer McKoon. This is something new for Alpine and should interest everyone. Perhaps, if enough interest is aroused someone will see the need in Alpine for a Hobby Shop, at which everyone, especially the children, may buy the necessary supplies for their hobbies, without journeying to El Cajon. A boy with a hobby seldom "makes" the juvenile court.

The Pilgrim Fellowship plan to enjoy their first swimming party Friday, April 17, at Mission Beach.

Dr. Roger Larson, pastor of the Community Church, attended a meeting of ministers of the Congregational Church at Escondido on Sunday evening.

Ladies Guild of the Community Church needs wool materials, bright colors preferred, to fill rug orders now on hand. Materials may be left at the parsonage or with Mrs. Jane Dunn.

L. Titus has been heading the call for the Spring Cleanup Campaign by enlisting the services of Scouts Freddy Osie, David Hughes and Dennis Rudy. They have done yeoman work in cleaning up the grounds of the pocket size rancho on Highway 80. Titus says anyone with clean-up ideas can hire these Scouts by calling Harrison 4-2479. All work guaranteed. Also the satisfaction of helping these fine boys makes the fine spring days even better. So give a call for the Scouts.

SICK CALL

Mrs. Jane Dun has been seriously ill with a cold and complications. She is now well on the road to recovery.

The Scout Troop Committee will hold a special meeting at the home of L. Titus, Monday evening, April 20.

The Telephone Company has issued an attractive booklet telling of the change of Prefix for the Pacific Telephone Co. to take effect next January. Alpine's Harrison 4, will become Hickory 5. The change is part of the preparation for Long Distance dialing.

At their regular weekly dinner meeting on Thursday evening, the Kiwanis Club of Alpine voted to purchase a flag and standard for the stage of the new school auditorium.

The program chairman for next Thursday evening is Fred Rushing, who has not announced the program, but has promised a surprise.

Dr. Frank Bornowski will receive a lapel tab for 15 years of perfect attendance at Kiwanis Clubs of Pacific Beach and Alpine. During those fifteen years Frank has performed many important community services.

The Youth Speaks

By J. C. La Suer

Today I intend to start out by offering a bit of sage advice to a boy or girl bent on having fun in the country as I did this last Saturday. Three of us boys took our bikes and "grub" away from the city to the most wonderful spot on earth. We spent the entire day in and around a bubbling stream. We saw fish and frogs galore. But in order to really enjoy yourself you must take off your shoes (I thought). Barefooted we went in and out of the water. We decided to go hunting with our B. B. guns. There was no time to put on our shoes. Away we went. I stepped on a fallen barbed wire fence. Monday evening my doctor honored me by using my other side for a cushion for two big long needles. I have not sat very easy since. Moral — do not take chances unnecessarily or you, too, may become a needle-cushion.

A group of excited eighth-graders from El Cajon School went to the beach over the week-end. I understand they caught two jelly fish.

Picture taking time is here at El Cajon School for "Golden Echoes of '53", the annual.

Grossmont students enjoyed a dance and floor show in their auditorium Saturday night.

Have you noticed all the baby spiders that hide in a corner or behind something? This is another sure sign of spring.

I think this exchange of P. O. W. men is just grand but why are we trading them so many for so few?

The answer to last week's "Guess Who?" is Jim Thorpe. Did you guess who he was?

We had better use a girl this week or you may get the idea that we like only boys and that is not true. We adore the fairer sex. Do you remember "Baby Snooks"? She had a baby brother called Rogues Pierre. She was quite a problem for "Daddy." In real life she was a famous comedienne. She was a Jewess. Who was she?

Bicycle Safety
Be sure to steer your bicycle right, And always be very careful at night. When going fast be sure to slow down. In case you might slip and go down. When riding a bike don't be fancy, For you could break a leg like Nancy. Allen Turned, Grade 5 Cuyamaca School

If I Had
If I had a nice blue bike, I could go riding every night. I'd have to keep it nice and clean, And fix the tires so they won't lean. I would have a red tail light, For riding on a cold dark night. Gail Platt, Grade 5 Cuyamaca School

Good Safety Always Pays
Safety rules always obey, For they may come in handy some day. Never dart out in front of cars, Or one of these days you'll land on Mars.

Now take Tim Pratt, a nervous old chap While riding his bike, he took a nap. A car came along behind old Tim, And to this day none has found him. Bill Cushman, Grade 5 Cuyamaca School.

Santa Barbara Lake Won't Open Until 1954

Cachuma Lake in Santa Barbara County, originally scheduled to open May 2, will be closed until trout season 1954, the Outing Bureau of the Automobile Club of Southern California said today.

The lake had been stocked for fishing this season. The opening date was postponed a year to give the fish a chance to grow.

Don't count your chickens before they're hatched!

That's pretty good advice about a lot of things in life...but right now it's particularly appropriate as a warning against the misleading claims made by a few promoters of vending machine deals. They offer big money for spare time work...but, of course, you have to put up something like $600 cash. Unfortunately, these ventures seldom pay off—except for the promoter! There are many legitimate vending machine companies, but don't count your profits before you make them. Instead, see your B.B.B. before you invest in such a plan.

When in doubt see B.B.B.!

Southern California Furniture Industry Plans Survey Tour For NAM President

Furniture Manufacturers Association of Southern California today programmed a survey tour of its $250,000 annual (wholesale) income industry by National Association of Manufacturer's President Charles R. Sligh, Jr., on his visit here next Tuesday.

The Southern California furniture makers, who employ 15,000 craftsmen in this area in 500 factories and have a $50,000,000 payroll, are out to impress Sligh visually with their national leadership in design and fashion trends, and in modern creations in this field.

There will be some irony in their venture, since Sligh, in addition to being NAM president, is a former president of the National Association of Furniture

Manufacturers, from Grand Rapids, Mich., described by furniture makers of this area as the "former furniture capital of the United States." Actually, Southern California ranks third in the nation in furniture manufacturing, so far as volume is concerned, but is a acknowledged leader in creative designing and modern styling.

During Tuesday afternoon Sligh will be taken through the Los Angeles Furniture Mart, and at 6:30 p. m. will be guest of honor in the Gold Room of the Ambassador Hotel, the host being the Furniture Manufacturers Association of Southern California.

He will be presented at the dinner with the Helm's Athletic Foundation Award in recognition of his personal achievement and his encouragement of athletics, as president of the American Water Ski Association and five times winner of the National Open Water Ski Tournament. He was instrumental in bringing the 1953 meet to Sa Diego, Aug. 24-25.

Interested in a more scientific approach to problems of taxation, Sligh will confer with area business leaders about his recent talks with President Eisenhower and Congressional Committees about future of business and industry under the new administration. Sligh is convinced, he says, a new era of sustained expansion of our standard of living is underway for the United States, with the greatest economic activity destined for the West. "The New Era vs. The New Deal is the tempo of our times," he said, "with a bright future for Southern California and neighboring states."

Bauer Re-Elected Auto Club President

Other members of the board of directors are Stuart O'Melveny, Knox Farrand, Asa V. Call, Neil Petree, George M. Wallace and Horace G. Miller.

Also re-elected are the following officers: Standish L. Mitchell, secretary and general manager; Ralph Reynolds, assistant secretary and manager of the departments of insurance.

The 12-man advisory board, made up of civic leaders from the 13 Southland counties, was re-appointed.

Big Cities - - Big Problems

The fact that the City of New York will have a budget in the next fiscal year second only to the United States Government has thrown the spotlight on the enormous problems facing our big cities.

Today, nearly two-thirds of the 156 million Americans live in metropolitan centers. This jamming of great masses into relatively small areas has created intense difficulties in transportation, sanitation, safety and the like.

What's the answer? There certainly isn't any quick and easy one. The only solution seems to be to make the cities smaller. Of course, you can't tell every third person in New York or Los Angeles to move away. This is still a free country.

But the decentralization of population may be achieved eventually by other means. For instance, the decentralization now going on in business and industry. The very problems of transportation and parking have caused many large companies to move their operations to suburban or rural areas. Here in California banks have found that they can better serve more customers through branches in outlying districts and communities. Large stores have also established branches for the same reason. Numerous manufacturers moving into California have chosen the less congested areas for their plants.

As we have said, people can't be forced to move. But the more jobs and services created in places away from the big cities, the more people will be willing to move.

End The "Hush, Hush"

The 63-0 vote in the State Assembly to ban secret meetings of city councils and other such agencies is indicative of the strong public feeling against closed sessions by governing bodies.

California newspapers have long been fighting to put an end to the practice which has often barred reporters from meetings dealing with public questions and the withholding of important information from the people.

The bill as passed by the Assembly would require 24 hours notice to newspapers of special meetings. Regular meetings would have to be held at announced times and places. Closed sessions could deal only with hirings and firings and complaints against employees.

There seems little doubt that the State Senate will approve the measure, and there is no doubt that the public "wants to know what's going on."

Incidentally, the public could do more to inform itself if more citizens attended the meetings of boards of supervisors and city councils. The almost total indifference toward these meetings on the part of the people has made possible the abuses which the legislation now aims to correct. But unless the public shows more interest in its own business other abuses will crop up.

This is supposed to be a government "of the people." Let's see that it is.

Mid-Term Convention?

An Indiana Democrat has come up with the intriguing idea of holding a full-scale national convention of the party in 1954!

That's enough to send a chill down the spine of the most battle-scarred and durable politician. Isn't it bad enough to have a national convention once every four years? Why compound the headache?

But the man presenting the idea contends that it would unify the party, an denable it to present a clear stand on current issues. It would also bring the Democratic Party more into the spotlight.

There are many who claim that far from unifying the party, it would reveal great disunity and that to have the spotlight thrown on that would do more harm than good.

Maybe they should hold a convention to decide if they'll hold a convention.

CAPITOL
AND COUNTY
News Letter
by RALPH R. CLOYED
ASSEMBLYMAN

The highlight of the week, at least insofar as the San Diego delegation in the State Legislature is concerned, was the visit to the State Capitol of a group of business men on a good-will tour sponsored by the San Diego Chamber of Commerce.

The group held a series of meetings on the subjects of highways, water, and the creation of a San Diego Bay Port Authority. The meetings were held with the three committees of the Legislature that would consider the matters discussed whenever bills pertaining to these subjects were presented.

Most of them found time to be the guest of the Legislature during the session and were extended the courtesy of the Chambers, and at the request of the San Diego delegation, the Assembly recessed long enough to listen to Charles Ramsey, one of the Directors of the Chamber of Commerce, who addressed the body.

They also visited the Governor's office, and in an hour session presented to the Governor some of San Diego County's most serious problems, for which the Governor promised cooperation. Many of the delegation were surprised as to the knowledge Warren had regarding the needs of San Diego County and his efforts in their behalf to solve the problems presented.

With six dissenting votes the Assembly passed a loyalty oath bill which requires any person seeking to use school buildings for meetings to sign an affidavit declaring that they are not and have not been members of any communist or front organizations.

The Assembly Livestock and Dairies Committee has passed and sent to the floor of the Assembly, Senate Bill 470, a bill which would prohibit imitation ice cream made with vegetable oils from being manufactured or sold in California.

Excluded from the unemployment insurance act by a bill passed by the Assembly are: commissioned salesmen for cemeteries, business opportunities, mineral and oil salesmen. They would be considered independent contractors.

Legislation putting child care centers on a permanent basis has passed the Assembly Education Committee. The bill appropriates

$5,450,000 for operation of 280 child care centers for the coming year.

A bill passed by the Assembly and sent to the Senate requires motels to post maximum as well as minimum rates when they advertise along the highway. The present practice of quoting a minimum price and up would not suffice.

Governor Warren, in his address to the Legislature at the start of the session, advocated a bill providing $75 monthly average grants to permanently and totally disabled persons. This measure has been defeated in the Assembly Social Welfare Committee by one vote. A similar bill was defeated on the Assembly floor in 1951. The author of the bill is making efforts to have the bill reheard.

The highway problem is not any closer to a decision as differences have developed between the Senate and Assembly on what should constitute a mainline system. There has been a well-backed Senate drive for a new highway program that some Assemblymen have predicted would deadlock over road priority for a mainline system. At a meeting of joint legislative committees on highways, strong opposition developed to the plan for legislative designation of a new mainline highway system. Some voiced opposition to the enactment of any route bill to be tied in with a boost in highway construction funds, and there is more sentiment of increasing the revenue and bypassing a route system and turning the job over to the State Highway Commission.

Warren has not endorsed any bill but he told the San Diego delegation here on the good-will tour that he considered a cent and a half increase in gasoline tax and equivalent raises in other highway users tax reasonable.

THE RAMBLER...

The old horse is back in the harness again but, like many farm plugs, he's not pulling much weight. In words that all mule skinner can understand, his tugs are slack.

However, the other mules that make up this six mule team, are pulling their full weight plus, especially now with the Buyers Herald added on to their already overloaded wagon.

Let's hope the five mules can pull the load plus the old mule's dead weight.

This little April shower we had Tuesday really made things smell like a young man's thoughts in June, whatever that means. Things we note in passing are that the new commercial buildings are beginning to show up. Clyde Cobb's new plant to handle Fuller Paints being put up by Homer Wright, is going to be quite an improvement.

The new building on the corner of Main and Orange, is also going to add much to the City.

Wot we wonder about is just when Lakeside's so badly needed new Post Office is going to get steep for something 99¢ water. Or to phrase it another way, two bucks for a melon, is not such a good buy as chuck roast at 59¢ a lb. which brings to our attention the fact that a guy can buy beef now. The Foodmaster has some hot buys this week, as well as other markets. Good buys are also to be had in cars. For any one planning on a new used car for vacation, this is the time to get one. In another month, the demand will pick out the best buys.

Vacations, we are informed by our young fry, are getting closer and closer, all of which causes Mama's to get a cold chill. It's so nice to have the school teachers take Junior and Sis out of Mama's hair.

Lets wind this up, and hope that the clouds we see outside mean rain. So Long.

Dairy Lobby Wins Another Battle

The dairy lobby has won another round in its fight to keep imitation ice cream off the market, but budget-wise housewives may yet have the last word, as they did two years ago in the battle of butter vs. oleomargarine.

The State Senate has passed a bill by Sacramento's Senator Earl Desmond to prohibit the manufacture, distribution and sale of a frozen dessert known as Mellorine. And now an Assembly committee made up wholly of dairymen and dairy-country legislators, has approved the bill and sent it to the Assembly floor for final legislative action.

Mellorine, or imitation ice cream as it is popularly called, now is legal in California, although it never has been marketed here. However, the Pict-sweet frozen foods company has invested a huge sum in a plant in Los Angeles for the manufacture of frozen dessert.

But if the Desmond bill is passed in the Assembly and is signed by Governor Earl Warren, the plant and equipment investment and Pictsweet's marketing plans will have to be abandoned. This was brought out in testimony before the Assembly Dairy and Livestock Committee by Bradley Jones, an official of Pictsweet.

Representatives of the state's big cotton industry fought unsuccessfully to block the bill in the Assembly committee. Their interest in the manufacture of Mellorine is that the basic ingredient of the dessert is cottonseed oil.

Mellorine, these representatives pleaded, would provide another marketing outlet for California cotton, and would supply a wholesome frozen dessert that sells for one-third the price of ice cream.

It also was brought out in the committee hearing that Mellorine meets all the rigid standards of the pure food laws, and that it has both the appearance and the taste of ice cream.

W. C. Davis, Jr. of Kingsburg, a cotton man testifying in opposition to the Desmond bill, had this to say:

"Recently, a research man of the University of California at Davis conducted in Sacramento a taste test among the dairy section of the Farm Bureau and 34 out of 50 who tasted real ice cream and the vegetable oil product stated that they preferred the vegetable oil product. 'If the product is this good and if it is properly labeled and can be sold cheaper than ice cream, then certainly the consumers of California should be allowed to purchase this product as they wish.'

Irv J. Blake, head of a Sacramento ice cream company which bears his name, called the Desmond measure "a vicious bill, and one which the kids and housewives of California should oppose with all their might."

Blake said he has plans to manufacture Mellorine along with ice cream, "because there is a market for both." He said thousands of people cannot afford to buy real ice cream regularly, just as they cannot afford "butter at 79 cents to $1 per pound."

He predicted that when the Assembly gets the Desmond bill for final action, "we will see another march on Sacramento by the housewives of this state."

"The dairy people who for years succeeded in keeping colored oleo from our tables finally were brought to their knees by the potent voice of the women."

"Well, these same dairy people are inviting another ultimatum by the guardians of the family purse string. In Chicago and other centers where imitation ice cream is sold, you can get three pints of this product for the price of two pints of ice cream."

"And that's the language the housewife knows and likes."

The dairy lobby which sponsored the Desmond bill said the purity or the edibility of imitation ice cream made from vegetable oils have never been doubted.

J. L. Hamilton of the Challenge Cream and Butter Association of Los Angeles said his only reason for wishing to outlaw Mellorine was one of competition.

He cited figures to show there is a large surplus of butter in the United States, which the government has brought under the price support plan.

Blake, the Sacramento ice cream man, retorted:

"This is an artificial surplus, if butter wasn't selling for almost a dollar a pound, people would eat more of it."

Surveys conducted for the American Cancer Society show that about two American adults in every five still do not know that cancer is curable.

Atonement, Christian Science Topic

The practical healing import of Jesus' atonement will be explained and illustrated in the Sunday Lesson-Sermon "Doctrine of Atonement" in all Christian Science churches.

The Golden Text from I John 1:3 reads, "That which we have seen and heard declare we unto you, that ye also may have fellowship with us: and truly our fellowship is with the Father, and with his Son Jesus Christ."

The Apostle Paul declares (Hebrews 4:15, 5:9), "For we have not an high priest which cannot be touched with the feeling of our infirmities; but was in all points tempted like as we are, yet without sin. . . . And being made perfect, he became the author of eternal salvation unto all them that obey him."

A correlative passage from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy says, "We acknowledge Jesus' atonement at the evidence of divine efficacious Love, unfolding man's unity with God through Christ Jesus the Way-shower; and we acknowledge that man is saved through Christ, through Truth, Life, and Love as demonstrated by the Galilean Prophet in healing the sick and overcoming sin and death" (p. 497).

Irvin Lyons, Eucalyptus Hills representative to the Board of Directors, Lakeside Irrigation District, gave a report on activities of the board.

Wot Goes On...

By Millie

Living in a small community is indeed most interesting. Seems there is always something brewing to keep us stirred up. I suppose this is all part of growing up, and that is what Lakeside has begun to do. Yes as we grow, it means more classrooms in our schools, which, of course, means more taxes and this is what irks so many. This is understandable, but when a group of men and women get to the point where they push someone around who has worked hard and served well in his community, it is time for us to stop and take inventory. Lakeside can well be proud of their beautiful schools and believe me it didn't happen over night. Many trips to Sacramento and elsewhere were taken by our Superintendent Mr. Walker before it could materialize, and we as citizens of this community should appreciate the man who is at the helm of our School District in Lakeside. Remember—this is my personal opinion, but I feel now that so many remarks are being passed, it is a good time to make our feelings clear.

Last Sunday I got in my car together with two friends, we left Lakeside around 10:30 a. m. and took off for some sightseeing. Going through the Mission Valley on the Freeway we were rolling along at about 50 miles per hour, when all of a sudden way, but my legs were limp, and I could hardly continue to drive. I did, but went at a gait of about 25 miles per hour until I got over the sudden shock.

What are these drivers thinking of when they dart out right in front of oncoming cars travelling at a high speed — I'll never know, but one never knows do we when it may be our turn. We drove down toward the beaches, viewed the ocean and around noon ate our dinner at Jamar's Driftwood which over looks Mission Bay. What a spot — we sat in front of a huge window and while we ate delicious food, watched the speed boats and aqua planners having a wonderful time. In the distance there were a number of sail boats cruising along leisurely with never a worry in the world. After spending around an hour or more in this restful place and with our stomachs well filled, we proceeded on to La Jolla through the many winding streets with its lovely homes. Flowers everywhere — the many colored ivy geraniums are what took our eye, reds, pinks, lavenders growing in profusion in almost every yard. How I wish we in Lakeside could grow more of them, but old man frost doesn't seem to want us. The coves along the ocean front are inter-travelled over on to 395, turned off on Poway grade and enjoyed the rolling, peaceful countryside in that lovely valley. After driving up and down through many esting with their many shaped rocks, and with the ocean splashing between them, make it most inspiring.

Time was passing by, so we some fool in his can crossed the freeway directly in front of us. To say we were scared is an understatement, my legs hit the brakes and after much screaming, we safely proceeded on our hills and mountains, we finally arrived safely back in our own hometown of Lakeside. Though a bit weary we were glad to get back home where we could relax and think about the many hours we enjoyed that day.

Keep the Woman's Club Annual Flower Show in mind April 30th. Beautiful flowers — many many prizes to be given away. Katie Miller is to be in charge and take it from me she knows her flowers. Mrs. Miller always has beautiful flower gardens at her home.

Rural Hiway Deaths Double That of City

With an eye on the spring weather that invites long week-end drives, the California Highway Patrol today reminded motorists that the terrific death toll on rural highways is more than twice that of city streets.

Parol Commissioner B. R. Caldwell said that so far this year about 9 persons have died in rural mishaps to every 4 killed in accidents within cities.

He also noted that last month the total number of rural traffic deaths rose 18 per cent after a five-month downward trend.

High speed and the resulting severity of rural accidents is the chief reason for the wide difference between the two death rates, he said.

Caldwell cautioned motorists against false security when driving on straight, level stretches of good highway and when the weather is clear and the pavement dry.

The overwhelming majority of fatal and injury accidents occur under just those conditions, he said.

On narrow, twisting mountain roads or in rain, snow or fog most drivers realize extra care is needed and act accordingly, he said.

How to make good telephone service even better....

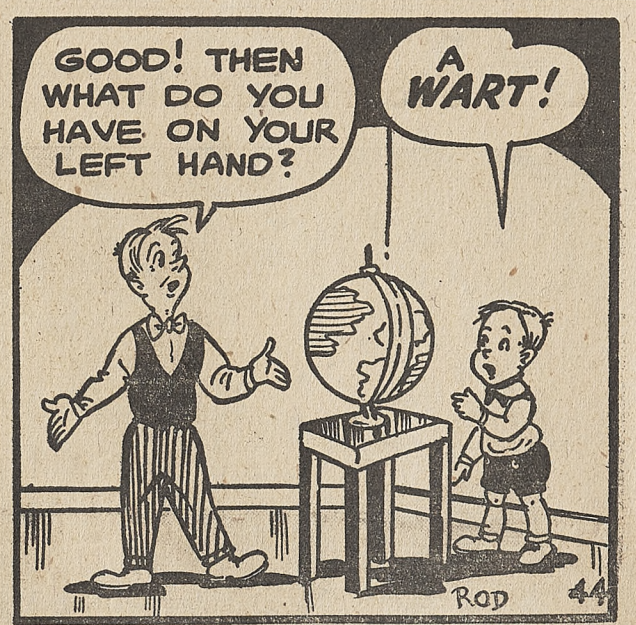

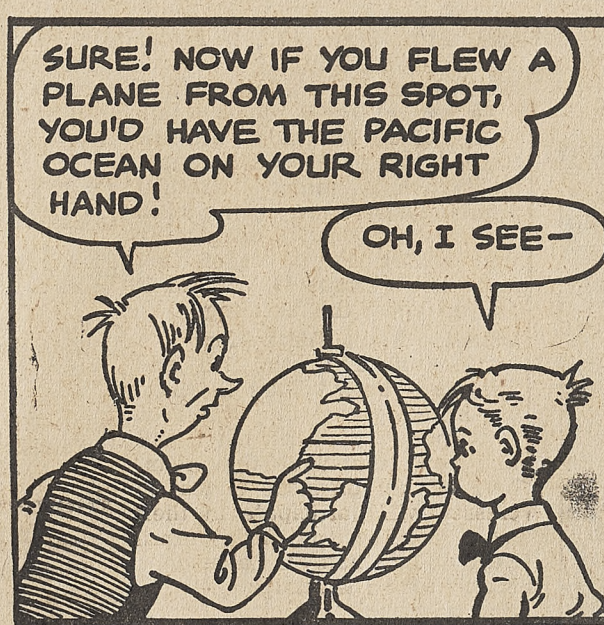

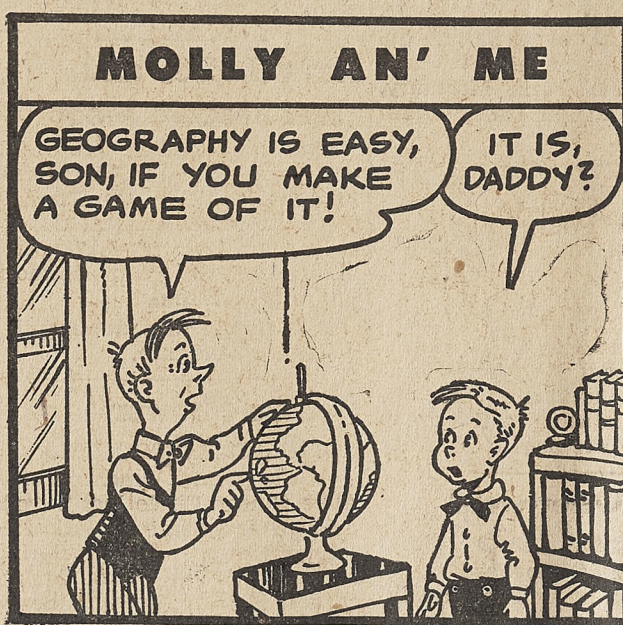

You'll spread the news faster if you call by number

When you're making out-of-town calls you'll find that your calls go through faster — twice as fast — if you give the operator the telephone number you want rather than just the name and address. That way, you see, you won't have to wait while she calls "Information" to get the number you're calling. So why not keep a list of out-of-town numbers handy — it's surprising how much time you'll save.

now you can take calls anywhere in the house... with handy extension telephones.

No more missing important calls, simply because you were in a distant part of the house and couldn't get to the phone in time. You can enjoy extension telephones now — for just a few pennies a day.

Grossmont PTA Board to Meet Tonight

There will be a meeting of the newly elected Board Members of the Grossmont High School P. T. A. on Thursday, April 23, in Room 65 A in the Arts Building at the school. Mrs. Jack Gould, president, announces that the school will hold Open House on April 30 in lieu of the regular P. T. A. meeting, when exhibits of school procedures will be open to the public in the Cafeteria. All classrooms will be open during the evening and visitors will be free to visit any part of the campus and to converse with school personnel.

Mrs. Gould will attend the annual convocation at Camp Marston on April 24 and 25 where 150 people, members of the faculty, representatives from the surrounding grammar schools and students from other high schools in the County, will meet to roster better student-teacher relations and to train future leaders.

Cajon School Hears Grossmont Band

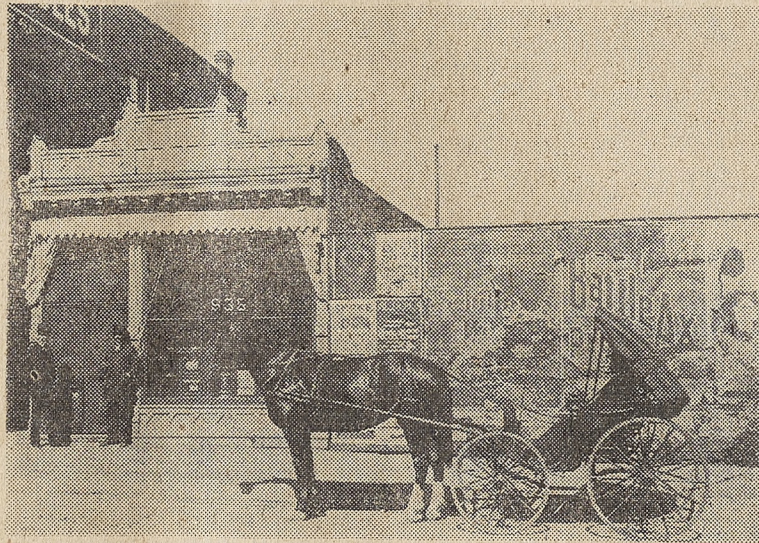

Grossmont High School's Blue and Gold Band presented a thirty minute concert to pupils of the El Cajon Grammar School Thursday, April 16. Harold G. Lutz directed the band in three numbers, and presented three soloists.

The soloists were Kenneth Carter, drums, who played Thunder March by J. P. Sousa; Rod Teague, saxophone, who played Beautiful Colorado; and Frank Fox, trombone, who played Sylvia by Oley Speaks.

Numbers by the band included Rachmaninoff's C Minor Prelude, Perpetual Motion by Bohm, and Santa Fe Trail by Maurice Whitney.

San Diego Gas Company Serves 89 Subscribers...1881

In 1881 five civic-minded San Diegans organized the San Diego Gas Company. With $100,000 in capital and $30,000 in equipment, the young company was in business — furnishing gas to 89 subscribers.

Six years later the interests of an eastern firm, the Jenney Electric Company, were purchased, and a year later Dr. R. M. Powers, president of the combined utilities firm, modestly reported, "The new electric light works are in operation furnishing a total of 173 lights, and we are capable of supplying a total of 300."

This 1890 photograph from the historical collection of Union Title Insurance and Trust Company shows Dr. Powers standing, right, with F. W. Jackson, member of the Board, and E. W. Hickman, who contracted prospective clients via horse and buggy. This building at 936 Sixth Avenue was the first company-owned home of the utility firm, and was replaced in 1897 by a two-story structure. In 1924 the company moved to its present location in the Electric Building.

Rent Decontrol To Spark

Renovation Surge Totalling Millions

A giant surge of renovation and redecoration, totaling many millions of dollars and improving the homes of millions of tenants, will be sparked by the coming federal decontrol of rents, Charles B. Shattuck, Los Angeles, president of the National Association of Real Estate Boards, predicted this morning. He spoke at a meeting in Joplin of officials of Missouri real estate boards.

Now that the Administration has put into effect its policy of eliminating price and wage controls, it is unlikely that Congress will retain a discriminatory price control over rents, he added.

This decontrol will mean increased work for the construction trades and booming sales for building products, Mr. Shattuck pointed out.

"Besides raising the housing standards of the nation, the restoration of freedom to this segment of the economy will stimulate the return to the rental market of many units which rent control has forced off the market, and an increase in home ownership as financially able tenants take long-delayed action to buy homes," Mr. Shattuck said.

He based his forecast on the beneficial experiences of cities of every size which have been freed of control during the last three years, such as the widely differing communities of Los Angeles, Denver, New Orleans, Atlanta, Spokane, Tampa, Hammond, Ind., Fargo, N. D., Dearborn, Mich., Bloomington, Ill., and

Washington, Ind. "Deferred maintenance has become commonplace in cities where incomes of owners of rental units have been frozen at prewar levels by rent control while taxes rose and costs of operation, building materials, fuel, and other items have been permitted to seek the prevailing economic level," Mr. Shattuck explained. "The discrimination against property owners has made it impossible for many of them to keep their rental dwellings in the condition they would prefer. Deterioration of property has been no more desirable for them than it has been for tenants."

"Return to a free market, with rental income commensurate with today's economy, will enable owners to resume decoration and maintenance of their rental apartments and houses. With more than 4 million units due to be freed, it's not difficult to foresee the magnitude of the renovation and redecoration on tap. One estimate sets the pent-up improvement activity to be released at nearly two-thirds of a billion dollars."

"Almost all cities which have freed themselves from rent control report a dramatic increase in the number of units available for rent," Mr. Shattuck said. "Not a single city that has been freed from rent control has suffered the hardships that advocates of rent control had predicted would follow decontrol."

Yellowtail Fishing Good In San Diego Area

Yellowtail fishing in San Diego waters has been good this week, the Outing Bureau of the Automobile Club of Southern California reports. One hundred and fifteen were taken in one day.

Barracuda and bass angling have been good at San Clemente. Some white sea bass were taken. Boats out of Long Beach returned from San Clemente Island with good catches of bass and some barracuda.

Bass Angling Good Along Colorado River

Bass fishing continues good at Lakes Mead, Havasu and Mohave, according to the Outing Bureau of the Automobile Club of Southern California. Fair trout fishing is reported below Davis Dam in the vicinity of Bullhead City, Arizona.

Single eggs, clusters and trolling with flat fish have produced the best results, the bureau said.

Nation's Leaders Sign Up For United States Savings Bonds

President Dwight D. Eisenhower signed a Bond-A-Month authorization card for Savings Bond saleswoman, Mary Pickford during her recent visit to the Nation's Capital. They are shown above with Mrs. Eisenhower, who is the Honorary National Chairman of the Women's Advisory Committee for Savings Bonds.

Following the example of the President, House Speaker Joseph W. Martin, Jr. also signed up with Miss Pickford for the regular purchase of Savings Bonds.

Miss Pickford serves as Associate National Chairman of the committee which is currently conducting a Women's Crusade for Security, a campaign to increase sales of United States Savings Bonds through the systematic Bond-A-Month Plan.

Spring Fair Offers More Leisure for Homemakers

Unable to control a perfectly understandable curiosity regarding a wonderful revolutionary idea that will be a boon to brides and a keeper of happy homes, Mrs. Marjorie Fleming, resorting to some playful trickery on Bill Shafer, got a pre-view peek at the range with the electric eye which prevents food from burning. This answer to every cook's prayer is now on public display at the Spring Fair of Modern Home Ideas at the Electric Building in Balboa Park.

San Diego County homemakers looking for greater leisure and more comfortable living will be able to feast their eyes on scientific wonders and startling innovations that can give them just that when they visit the Spring Fair of Modern Home Ideas which will be at the Electric Building, Balboa Park, through next Sunday.

What woman wouldn't want to see the revolutionary new range with an electric eye that eliminates the burning of food? What maker would want to overlook an electric servant that always has ice cubes ready for instant use, that does away with the pulling and hauling of ice trays? Who wouldn't be interested in such novelty items as the changeable covers for refrigerator fronts that add that gay, colorful atmosphere to the kitchen. These are just a few of the many "modern ways to better living" which over 100 nationally-known manufacturers are exhibiting at the Fair. And here, under one roof, visitors are able to shop leisurely and make comparisons.

A highlight of this years Fair is the personal appearance of ten well-known home consultants who will be ready, willing, and expertly able to give helpful advice on homemaking problems. Whether it's a matter of laundering the new miracle fabrics, preparing or packaging foods for the freezer, ironing dainty garments, or any other homemaking question, they have the answers.

Other major attractions are the meat-cutting demonstrations and something entirely new in the way of complete pre-cooked frozen meals. One whole building is also devoted to exhibits featuring ultra-modern ideas in lighting, ventilating, heating, and wiring, which are of special interest to all present home owners and prospective home builders.

According to Ed Reed, Fair committee chairman of the Bureau of Home Appliances, sponsor of this show, it is expected that attendance this year will exceed the 125,000 persons who attended last year. Opening time is at 1 p. m. each day, closing time at 10:30 p. m. As usual, valuable appliances are given away as door prizes each afternoon and evening.

SCHOOL BULLETINS

THE PUBLIC SCHOOLS, AN AMERICAN HERITAGE

All persons who are interested in public education should mark the week of April 27 to May 1 on their calendars. For this is the week that the Lakeside Schools join all other public schools of the State in celebrating California Public Schools Week. The theme of this, the 34th observance of Public Schools Week is, "The Public Schools, an American Heritage," a thought which should mean much to us since free education is an integral part of our democratic pattern of living. It was the pioneer who steadfast in his desire for a free and productive land and believing that free education was necessary for both, insisted upon establishing public education where ever he went; thereby making our schools a symbol of our democracy and heritage.

Informal Programs
Believing that parents and other interested citizens should see our program function as it actually is, no demonstration lessons or artificial situations are planned for this special week. In order that as many as possible may visit, evening open house programs are also planned.

Classroom visitations during these evenings will be informal with the teachers in the rooms ready to answer your questions about your child, the school and the curriculum.

Poster Contest

This year's poster contest is again sponsored by the Valley Masonic Lodge, and, according to Mr. Wally Cate, chairman of the judging committee, the contest is open to all students. Judging will be according to grade groups — Primary, Intermediate and Upper. Preceding the classroom visits, there will be a general assembly for the purpose of presenting the contest awards.

Essay Contest

The Lakeside School is also sponsoring an essay contest this year. Essays will develop the theme of Public Schools Week, and these awards will be presented during the evening open house program.

Miss Francis Giddings Has Operation

Miss Francis Giddings, who was operated on last Thursday, is doing very nicely. We are certain she would enjoy hearing from her many friends, both children and adult. Mail will reach her at the Quintard Hospital, 1630 A Street, San Diego.

Meet Mrs. Davis

Our Lakeside Cafeteria Manager, Mrs. Helen E. Davis, was born near Independence (where have we heard of that place before?) Missouri. She was raised and educated in Independence and then moved with her family to North Dakota.

The year 1915 marked her marriage to G. E. Davis, and in 1925 she and her husband moved to San Diego. They have been in this area ever since. The Davises are proud of their son Wayne, who served for more than a year with the U. S. Marines in Korea.

Mrs. Davis has been with the school district for thirteen years as a Cafeteria Manager. Previous to that she has always done some type of office work, including employment as a bank clerk, post mistress, and cashier.

She is certainly conscientious and sincere about the role of the school cafeteria in our educational system. We believe it is because she is always vitally interested in the children — what they are doing, what they like to eat and the things they enjoy. As a matter of fact, we have strong suspicions that she is almost as interested in the teachers, classifying us with or perhaps as children.

Anyway, when interviewed, she said, "I wouldn't work any place else," and that's the way we want it to be.

Liquor Establishments To Close 1 a. m. Sunday

Wm. G. Bonelli, chairman and fourth district member of the State Board of Equalization, reminds liquor licensees that although the Alcoholic Beverage Control Act, which regulates California's liquor industry, declares all licensed premises may remain open and make sales until 2 a. m., they must close and stop sales at 1 a. m. on Sunday, April 26.

On that hour Daylight Savings Time for 1953 becomes effective. Clocks must be set ahead one hour, which will make the time 2 a. m. Daylight Savings Time, and stops the legal sale of alcoholic beverages.
